PEO Is an Organization of Women Dedicated to Education and Charitable Purposes

By MARY ANITA LASETER

Organized in Hope on April 4, 1947, Chapter AE of PEO, like other units of the Sisterhood, is an organization of women dedicated to educational and charitable purposes.

The late Joyce Monts (Mrs. Clyde) had been a PEO member in Missouri and Oklahoma and was the person responsible for the organization of the local chapter. She selected the charter list of members, and the membership is always by invitation.

One of the charter members of the Chapter is Miss Mable Ethridge, who has the distinction of holding the longest perfect attendance record of any PEO member in the state of Arkansas. In more than 12 years since it was begun, she has not missed a single meeting of Chapter AE.

The local chapter is proud of the fact that one of its members, Mary Virginia Horton (Mrs. F. M.), is second vice president of the state organization. Since the offices are attained through yearly promotions, in two years Mrs. Horton will be the state president.

More than 130,000 women in the U. S. and Canada make up the membership of the PEO Sisterhood, a philanthropic, educational organization. Some 3,500 chapters are located in every state in the Union.

Union Leader Urges Public Negotiations

CHICAGO (AP) — The head of the United Steelworkers Union's biggest affiliate today urged public negotiations between the company and union officials in the steel walkout.

"We have nothing to hide," said Joseph Gorman, director of USW District 21. "We have no desire to negotiate behind closed doors."

Gorman said newspaper readers—and even newspaper readers—were confused on such complex strike issues as work assignments, one of the main issues in the walkout.

"It is high time," he said, "that this matter be cleared up in the minds of the public."

He suggested that negotiations be held "in a meeting place of sufficient size so all who are interested may listen in and actually see the negotiations in session."

Union and company representatives are due to resume talks Tuesday in Washington under government supervision. The nationwide steel strike was 113 days old when employees went back to work Nov. 7 under an 80-day Taft-Hartley law injunction.

Gorman's district has more than 100,000 members in Chicago and northwestern Indiana's Calumet region around Gary.

No Drastic Changes, Cubans Told

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
HAVANA (AP) — Ma. Ernesto Guevara, left-leaning leader in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's official family, promised more belatedly for Cubans today but said there would be no drastic changes in economic policy, as he took over presidency of the Cuban National Bank.

U. S. Seeking More Data on Beaten Marine

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department sought more information today about the puzzling case of the kidnapped U. S. Marine sergeant and the Chinese Communist defector who did not defect.

Sgt. Robert Armstrong was held for about six hours Friday in the garage of the Chinese Communist consulate in Bombay, India. He was released after repeated efforts by the Bombay police to obtain his freedom.

Armstrong is a native of Martinez, Calif. A State Department spokesman said more information was needed from the American consul general in Bombay before it could be decided what—if anything—could be done about the incident.

Armstrong was seized outside the Red Chinese consulate office when he showed up there early Friday morning with a Chinese Export-Import Corp. official who, on Thursday afternoon, had asked for political asylum in the United States.

The would-be defector was named as Chang Chien-yuh. He had told officials at the U. S. consulate that he was fed up with the regimentation of his life under communism and wanted to come to America. At the same time, the State Department here reported, he had "showed extreme anxiety for his safety."

A consulate official whom the State Department did not identify took Chang and Armstrong to a beach cottage at Juhu, a resort 15 miles from Bombay, and left them there overnight.

Friday morning, the State Department said, Chang "indicated his mind and wished to return to the Chinese consulate." Armstrong accompanied him there. A dispatch from Bombay said they made the trip by taxi.

One of the mysteries of the affair as far as the State Department is concerned was why the Chinese changed his mind. Another is the question of why Armstrong, having returned to Bombay in the same taxi, got out with Chang in front of the Chinese consulate.

Holiday Toll of Deaths Is Now 174

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving holiday continued a slow movement upward today.

Whether the reason was unusual weather or the American tradition of staying close to home on this holiday, the death count was slow.

Snow, sleet, powerful winds and rain raked many sections of the country from 6 p.m. Wednesday onward—when the count of deaths from unusual causes began. The count will end at midnight (local time) Sunday.

The Associated Press made a survey of fatalities during a recent four-day non-holiday period. Traffic deaths then totaled 433, fires 49 and 100 from miscellaneous causes. This totaled 582.

Last year's four-day Thanksgiving holiday produced 454 deaths involving automobiles, 54 in fires and 118 from miscellaneous causes.

The National Safety Council did not make an advance estimate of traffic deaths over Thanksgiving. This holiday, the NSC maintained, does not compare with other major holidays of the year when drinking and pleasant weather contribute to the death toll.

Singer Given Guard in Disc Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — A singer, reportedly fearing reprisals for his charges that disc jockeys exacted payoffs from him, today was given a police escort from his Bronx home.

A detection was sent to escort Don Anthony, 31, to the district attorney's office for questioning, about reported moves to intimidate him.

Anthony has claimed he was "bled of $5,000" by disc jockeys in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore to get them to air his long recorded by a company he formed himself.

He was quoted by the New York Post as saying he feared "muscle men" would beat him up in retaliation, and that "two men who acted like they were bopped up" have been following him late at night.

6,000 Acres Burn in South Arkansas Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Forestry Department employees today welcomed light rain and overcast skies in the wake of an outbreak of forest fires which burned over more than 6,000 acres of timber and brush land in the past few days.

Jim Talley, department fire chief, said only one fire, involving about 10 acres near Malvern, had to be put out today.

Twenty-four fires, which burned 276 acres, were extinguished yesterday. Most of these were in south Arkansas, mainly near El Dorado and Ashdown.

About 150 Forestry Commission personnel and 1,000 volunteer fought widespread fires Tuesday and Wednesday. Rain yesterday helped ease the situation. Talley said all department personnel remained on 24-hour call because "if the sun should come out and the winds rise, we will be in trouble again."

The fires began Tuesday and roared through timbered Arkansas forests. About 90 separate fires were reported during the three-day period ending yesterday.

C of C Urges Reduction of Income Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce today urged an immediate income tax cut.

The statement, reporting actions taken by the chamber's board of directors, said such cuts are vitally needed to stabilize the dollar and promote economic growth.

The chamber directors threw their support behind the Baker-Hartwig bill as the vehicle for the proposed tax cuts.

The bill, introduced by Reps. A. S. Herlong Jr. (D-Fla.) and Howard H. Baker (R-Tenn.) is before the House Ways and Means Committee which is now making a general study of the income tax program.

It would make graduated reductions over a five-year period in the individual income tax rate. The top rate would drop by stages from 91 percent to 47 percent. The bottom rate would move down from 20 percent to 15 percent. Corporate rates would go down by 1 percent annually, bringing the top rate down to 47 percent.

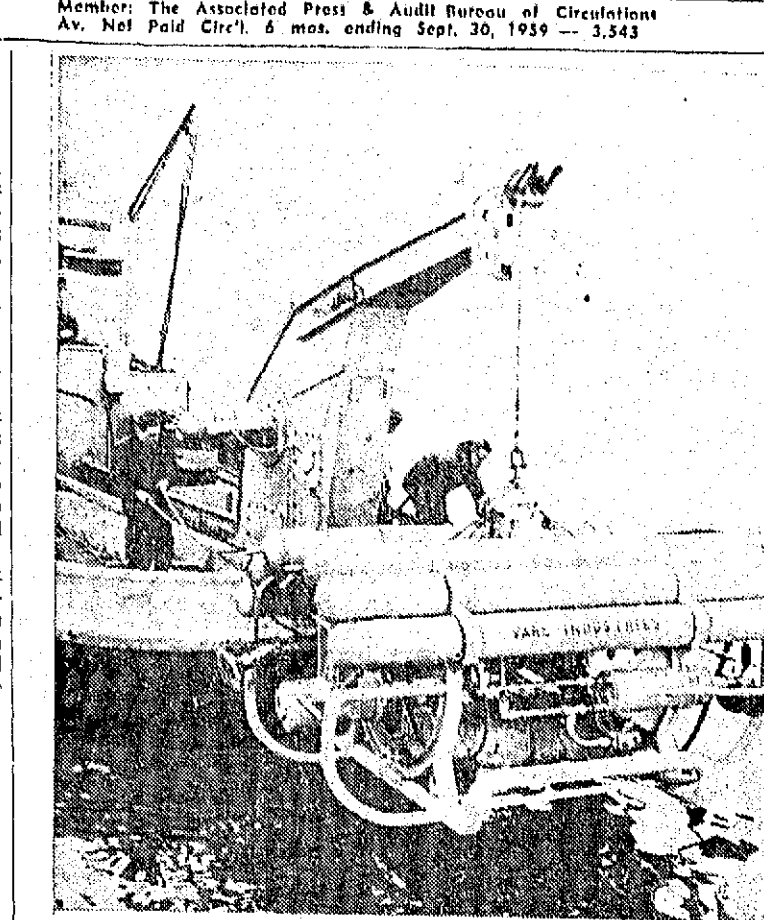

The bill also deals with depreciation allowances, capital gains, estate and gift tax reductions.

National Goals Commission Heads Picked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration sources said today two men have been selected to head President Eisenhower's proposed National Goals Commission, but official announcement is being withheld until adequate pledges for private financing are made.

Arthur F. Burns, former chairman of Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers (1953-56) and now head of the National Bureau of Economic Research in New York, is said to have been tabbed as commission chairman.

Frank Pace Jr., former budget director and secretary of the Army in the Truman administration and now president of General Dynamics Corp. of New York, is reported willing to take the vice chairmanship.

Eisenhower announced plans for the commission in a message to Congress last January. He said he would name experts in many walks of life to chart long-term goals for the nation.

U. S., Philippines Agree on New Plan

MANILA (AP) — U. S. and Philippine military commanders conferred for two hours today and reportedly agreed on new joint security measures for American bases here.

The conference was called by Philippine Defense Secretary Alejandro Santos in the wake of an American congressman's demand that the United States abandon this country as a Pacific defense project.

U. S. Rep. Phil Weaver (R-Neb.) issued a statement in Washington Wednesday charging that a "gauntlet" Philippine government was openly harassing American servicemen and that there was "mass looting of American property" here.

Weaver's statement drew a storm of protest in Manila, marked by bitter references to "unhappy Americans" and threats to abrogate treaties with the United States.

Elizabeth Taylor Has Pneumonia

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor is suffering from a virus-type of double pneumonia, course of which is undetectable, a hospital spokesman said today.

It could last three days, or three weeks, depending on how she reacts, the spokesman said. The present condition was reported as temporary.

Mrs. Taylor entered Harkness Pavilion of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center Thursday, after trying to fight off a persistent cough for the past two weeks.

U. S. Employees Are Increased

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sixty-four U. S. employees were reported to have been increased by 7.44 percent in the month.

Civilian agencies had 6,141 employees, up from 5,700 in October, an increase of 7.44 percent.

Third Man Is Convicted in L. R. Bombings

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Segregationist leader E. A. Linderdale, charged with bombing the Little Rock School Board offices last night and his punishment set at three years in prison and a $500 fine.

The stocky, 44-year-old lumber dealer, accused by others charged in the plot—stood grim-faced as the verdict was read. Then he sat down and nonchalantly leaned back in his chair as the courtroom crowd of about 200 remained silent.

In the crowd were several prominent segregationists, who earlier had heard Linderdale's defense attorney picture him as "a symbol and representative of those who believe in segregation."

The jury, which took the case after a week of testimony, deliberated an hour and a half.

Besides the school board, the business office of Mayor Werner Knopp and a station wagon at the home of Fire Chief Gann Nalley were dynamited. The blasts occurred within minutes of each other shortly before midnight Labor Day. No one was hurt.

Judge William J. Kirby allowed Linderdale's attorneys 30 days in which to seek a new trial, and the defendant remained free on $50,000 bond.

Linderdale was the third man convicted in the bombings. Two others, Jesse Raymond Perry, 24-year-old truck driver, and John Taylor Coggins, 29, a car salesman, drew three year sentences. Another man, J. D. Sims, 35, a truck driver, pleaded guilty to the second board bombing and got five years.

The fifth defendant, Samuel G. Beavers, 49, a carpenter, will be tried next month.

Must Deal With Brutal Force — Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says "the international community needs to find more effective means to cope with and to prevent such brutal uses of force" as the Communists employed in Hungary and Tibet.

The President said he intends to renew his request to Congress to repeal a restriction on United States participation in the International Court of Justice, or World Court.

At present this country reserves the right to decide whether an international issue falls within the World Court's jurisdiction. No case involving the United States can be taken before the World Court without this country's approval. Other countries also reserve this right.

"Elimination of this automatic reservation from our own declaration accepting compulsory jurisdiction would place the United States in a better position to urge other countries to agree to wider jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice," Eisenhower said.

The President's views were expressed in a letter to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee on Disarmament. The Eisenhower letter, in reply to one from Humphrey, was dated at Augusta, Ga., Nov. 17. Humphrey made it public Thursday.

Four Persons Die in Holiday Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four persons have died on Arkansas highways since the long Thanksgiving holiday began at 8 p.m. Wednesday. State police were attempting to hold down the number of accidents by a stepped-up highway patrol schedule.

Two persons died yesterday in wrecks at Waldo and Arkadelphia. A mother and her eight-year-old son were killed Wednesday night when struck by a car near Ola.

State Trooper Ben Cavins said that claimed the life of Arthur J. Ray, 34, of Waldo. It occurred 11 miles west of Waldo on Highway 62.

Cavins said Ray's car collided with a pickup truck and the driver of the truck sped away from the scene. Mrs. Helen Boin, 28, of Waldo, a passenger in Ray's car, was seriously injured. She was hospitalized at Magnolia.

Louis C. Howard, 75, of Houston, Texas, was killed yesterday when a car driven by his wife, Louise Howard, 71, went out of control and crashed into a ditch 3 miles south of Arkadelphia on Highway 67. Mrs. Howard was hospitalized at Arkadelphia.

Killed Wednesday night were Mrs. Bertha Scruggs, 41, and Ronnie Scruggs, 8, of near Ola.

During their five years of traffic, the rugged asphalt paved lanes of U.S. Route 64 between Van Buren and Alma, Ark. have required only 12 man-days of maintenance.

supposedly liberal groups. Perhaps it is an achievement that groups that have so much in common have now come together, though I think final determination depends upon the action of local autonomous churches. As I have followed press reports the discussion and actions relating to the union have had some strange aspects — strange at least unless one considered the earlier cleavage over humanism.

The first report was that the union was to be upon a basis in which the name of Jesus was omitted and "the two liberal religious bodies in effect (were) divorcing" themselves from the main stream of Christendom. The resolution which I believe was actually passed, was as follows:

"To cherish and spread the universal truths taught by the great prophets and teachers of humanity in every age and tradition, immemorably summarized in their essence as love to God and love to man."

But by later action the words "in their essence" were changed to read "in the Judeo-Christian heritage."

Personally, I am glad of the final resolution. I should like to think of the fine Unitarians and Universalists I have known, not just as friends, but as fellow Christians. To recognize goodness found in commendable, but to profess to enhance a gospel of love while dimming the image of Love's supreme Teacher and Exemplar is not only an inconsistency, but a tragedy.

At that time and later, there developed, especially among the Unitarians, a strong "humanist" group who professed to find in man all that was necessary in religion, and some of whom distinctly renounced the name "Christian."

The humanist movement encountered strong opposition in Dr. Van Schaick and others, but the growth of its influence is evident in the discussions and actions in connection with the decision to unite the Unitarians and Universalists, which has recently been accomplished in a meeting at Syracuse, N.Y.

I observed earlier movements to unite the liberal groups in which the late Methodist Bishop Fred Fisher had an active part, and it was interesting to see how deliberations broke down through the very illiberalism of some in these groups.

SPRING BOATING STARTS WITH WINTER STORAGE
By WM. TAYLOR McKEOWN
Editor, Popular Boating
(Distributed by NEA Service)

Successful spring boating preparations start now. Boats that come ashore for cold weather need proper winterizing so they will be in shape for launching when warm boating days come again.

Here are 10 steps to help get your boat through the winter safely:

1. Keep out water. If rain and snow collect inside, ice can form and damage even a fiberglass or metal craft. Shelter or cover the boat. If it is small enough, turn it upside down. If you cover it so tightly that no fresh air can get in, dry rot can attack wood. Mildew and mold may form. Good ventilation is important.

2. Keep the boat clean. A good scrubbing and hosing down of the hull is much easier now than in early spring when the dirt has dried and hardened. A coat of paint now may protect the surface and form a headstart undercoating for easier painting in the spring.

3. Keep the boat on the level. A boat improperly braced can sag in the middle or hog at both ends. Water supports a floating hull evenly along the entire length. A boat can lose its shape when improperly stored.

4. Keep accessories at home. Leaving gear aboard is a temptation to thieves. Storage indoors in a clean, dry place can prevent damage from rust, rodents and mildew.

5. Keep the waterlines drained. The plumbing of many a pleasure cruiser has been cracked from freezing because the skipper neglected to check all lines.

6. Keep the motors protected. Outboards should be stored indoors. Inboards should be drained of water, lubricated and protected from rust-forming moisture.

7. Keep an inventory of tired equipment. Set aside lines, sails, hardware and accessories for a thorough winter's inspection to determine what needs to be repaired and what should be replaced.

8. Keep a periodic visiting schedule for the boat. See if snow is sitting in or if the wind has torn a cover. Make sure that no small animals or youngsters have been crawling around inside. Examine all braces to be certain that frost is not heaving up on the hull and later, that early thaws are not letting these same important supports sink into the mud.

9. Keep a check list of items once more.

Arkansas' Cold to Be Short-Lived

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas' cold snap will be short-lived, the Weather Bureau said today.

The forecast calls for temperatures in the mid 40s to mid 50s tomorrow after freezing temperatures in most areas tonight.

However, the warming trend hasn't much future either. Forecasters expect another cold front by next Tuesday.

The cold front which moved across the state yesterday sent the thermometer plunging to a low of 19 at Fayetteville. Brief snow flurries were reported at Fayetteville and Pippin. Light rain was recorded over most of the rest of the state.

Low temperatures last night ranged generally from the low 20s in the north to the high 30s in the south. Reports included 23 at Dorado 38 degrees, Pippin 23, Fort Smith 21, Little Rock 34, Memphis 35, Pine Bluff 33, Texarkana 33, Walnut Ridge 32.

Eisenhowers Had No Cranberries

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhowers had a cranberry-less Thanksgiving dinner. Applesauce was served instead.

That word came from actress producer Frederick Brisson, who dined with the President and his family at the White House.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming and his family had government-approved cranberries with their holiday dinner. Flemming touched off a cranberry scare earlier this month when he reported some berries were tainted by a weed-killer which had produced cancer in rats.

CHAPTER XXXIV

Sara couldn't keep the words from pouring out.

"You're still looking back to the old way of life that your grandfather made you love, made you think should come again, back to the time when men were out tapping your trees. But your finer nature makes you ashamed of the exploitation that went with those times and you hate whoever or whatever shows up the evils of those old days."

"What can you know of hate, Sara?" His voice was hard, his face was hard, and she wondered how she had ever thought she saw a soul in it.

"When the focus of all your hate was about to slip away," her words went on spilling over, "you saved Ubo's life, and called it a means of proving his grandson's ancestry. And what you did with intent to harm — or ease your conscience — was mistaken for heroism."

As her intent to help Timmy had been mistaken for evil.

"And that, Manoel, hurt your self-respect, too. It didn't bother you when the men praised you for saving me, but praises for saving Ubo hurt."

"Must you talk like this, Sara?" he interrupted. "Lou solved my problem."

"If I solved your problem?" "You hid in my closet. You almost got yourself drowned."

"No, Manoel. I haven't solved your problem at all. Guaro's thefts isn't your problem. You diagnosed the situation for your whole country — but not for yourself. Your problem is learning to live with things as they are. Your men were incited to steal from you, yes, but you yourself built up the barrier that made them say 'Sim, senhor,' to every order with frozen faces."

She saw Manoel look at the landing, against which the boat was pulling now, at several people who were waving.

"Manoel," she said, putting her hand on his arm. "I'm sorry I've said these things. You ought to return to Belém. She ought not go to Manoel's home now."

That's all right, Sara. It's all right. But his voice made her think of the day he told her he knew she was working for Hemisphera. "I should be understanding," he said with an obvious attempt to soften his voice. "I realize that you have more grief than you've cared to talk about. That you've lost a more than the loss of your husband."

POWER that sustains may be found thru regular church attendance

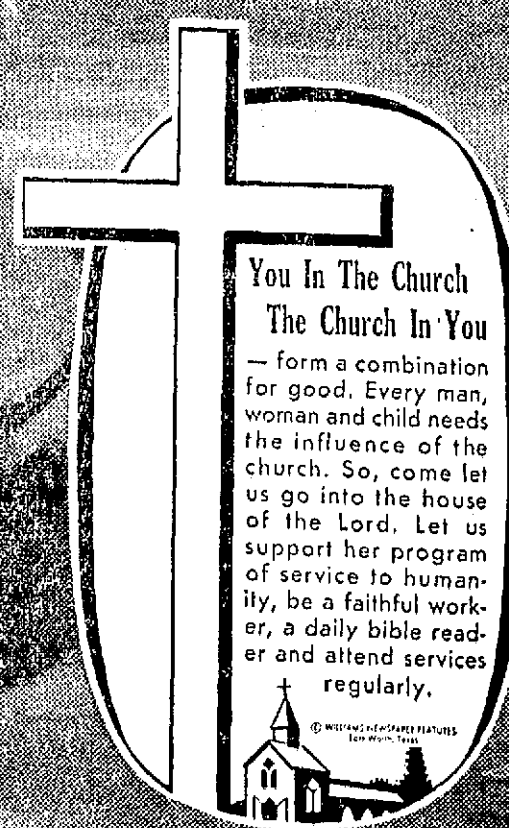

FALLING LEAVES

...usher in the season of Thanksgiving. The time when white frosts and flaky snows cover the earth. Isaiah 35 speaks of this mirage, but we know the Lord reigneth, and the parched ground shall become a pool as He said. Then, since all must come to judgment and be rewarded according to his personal behavior; and since eternity is so very long ...it is urgent that we approach, with much concern, our rendezvous with death. There is no variableness in God's cause nor in His justice. Support His church regularly and worship God every day.
